

Sonia Hammons

AAS Program Division Director
Federal Acquisition Service
U.S. General Services Administration

---

Sonia Hammons currently serves as the USSOCOM Sector Division Director in the AAS Defense portfolio. Prior to joining GSA, Sonia served as a Contracting Officer and Team lead for the Special Operation Forces Acquisition Technology and Logistics (SOF AT&L) Directorate of Procurement supporting multiple Program Executive Offices. Hammons has 20 years of acquisition experience in managing a variety of complex requirements.

Hammons has roots as a military dependent originating in Spain. She graduated from the University of Phoenix with a Master of Business Administration and from Middle Georgia State University with a Bachelor of Science in Marketing. Before joining GSA, Hammons spent 15 years with the Department of Defense as an unlimited warrant contracting officer and price analyst for HQ USSOCOM at MacDill Air Force Base and Air Force Materiel Command (AFMC) at Warner Robins Air Force Base.